

External economies of agglomeration as experienced by a firm through a shift in the production function due to an increase in the size of a city ( $N$  to  $N'$ ).